

Parti
Pirate

Strasbourg
From April 14 to 17, 2023

WEEK-END AU PARTI PIRATE

English booklet

Nixe-CC BY-NC 4.0_2022

WELCOME

In 2023, we are heading to Strasbourg!

It will be a pleasure for the WEPP's crew and the "Elsassiche Seeraewerr" to welcome you in Strasbourg from April 14 to 17, 2023, in the heart of Europe! Besides being a European capital with the European Parliament, Strossburi (for locals) is also the "Christmas capital", the "book capital of the world in 2024", the original pretzel country, the beer homeland ... and also the motherland of all forms of humility (it seems...). You will feel at ease here!

To make this spring WEPP a success, we have chosen a place of popular digital education called "Le Shadok". It is a former armoury, completely renovated in 2015 and located near the city centre at number 25 of the André Malraux peninsula (which isn't a peninsula in fact...).

To get there, but also to find accommodation and food, and to enjoy this weekend, you will find a lot of information in the following pages. Our team is at your disposal for any questions; do not hesitate to contact us, especially on Discord : <https://discord.gg/WckePzekQW>.

See you soon in Alsace!

The "Week-End au Parti Pirate" Team

Claude Truong-Ngoc / Wikimedia Commons - cc-by-sa-3.0_modifié

TRAVEL GUIDE

BEFORE BOARDING

Some useful information :

- Friday, April 14 (IN FRENCH ONLY) from 2.30 pm: Visitors' reception at the Shadok (25 Presqu'île André Malraux in Strasbourg) our base for the weekend. On site, you will be able to participate in afternoon conferences about the Internet in 2030 organized by "Alsace Digitale" a local association

– Saturday and Sunday, April 15 and 16 (IN FRENCH AND ENGLISH) starting at 10 am, two days of conferences, workshops and debates related to digital and democracy.

- Monday, April 17 (IN ENGLISH)

- Between 10.00 am and 1.00pm, workshops on campaigning and chatcontrol held in the European Parliament
- from 2.00 pm, European Parliament visit and conferences with Pirate MEPs (compulsory registration : tickets here within the limits of available slots).

ABOUT YOUR EXPENSES FOR THIS WEEKEND

(see FR Pirate Party shop).

HOW TO GET TO STRASBOURG?

As European capital, Strasbourg is easily accessible both by car and by public transportation!

Train: Strasbourg has a high-speed train station. Click here to check the rates and book your ticket.

Car: Strasbourg is well connected by the road network. If you are going to drive, think about carpooling!

You can also find many low-cost rides on carpooling platforms.

Drivers: Please note that there is a trap to avoid when arriving on the motorway near the city!

This trap is called "VINCI GCO TRICK": do not follow "STRASBOURG (péage)", but "ILLKIRCH" if you come from the south and "SCHILTIGHEIM" if you come from the north. Once you have passed the portion of the road that tries to make you pay 5€, for a useless diversions via the "Grand contournement de Strasbourg by Vinci autoroutes", you will find the STRASBOURG-centre signs without any problem.

Whether you are coming from the north (Paris) or the south (Mulhouse), the correct exit is "STRASBOURG - Kehl/Place de l'Étoile/Neudorf".

Bus: You can find low cost options to travel to Strasbourg from hubs everywhere (Paris, Frankfurt...). Check out options here.

Plane: If you come from far away and want to fly, be advised that Strasbourg-Entzheim airport will be closed for maintenance from April 13 to April 15, 6AM. The closest airport during this maintenance will be Basel-Mulhouse, which is only an hour and a half away by regional train (TER) from Strasbourg. If you fly to Strasbourg-Entzheim, you can easily reach the airport by TER in 15 minutes.

Great options across the Rhine are : Baden-Airpark airport (approx. 1.5 hours by train), Frankfurt/Main airport (approx. 2.5 hours by train).

I arrive by car...

- I want to park as close as possible

The nearest car park to the Shadok is the Etoile-cinéma car park (250m walk).

- I can park at a distance and walk or take transport

We advise you to use the P+R (parking relay):

- either the P+R Robertsau-Boecklin which is next to the Boecklin tram stop and takes you to the Shadok by tram E (get off at the Churchill stop).
- or the Baggersee P+R, which is also on the E tram line for efficient access to the Shadok with the Churchill stop.

When you arrive at the P+R entrance terminal, you will be given a single ticket valid for the occupants of the vehicle (up to 7 people). It allows you to leave your vehicle parked and then take the tram to the Shadok and come back together.

The price is €4.20 per day per vehicle with a return tram ticket included (and €10 per day in addition, i.e. €24.20 for 3 days for the vehicle and its passengers)

- I want to park for free

Head for the Robertsau district, where parking is free on the road, look for a place in the streets around the Boecklin stop, which will take you directly to the Churchill stop with the E tram, which is closest to the venue, the Shadok.

For those who stay to visit the European Parliament on Monday, it is also close to the European quartier.

Alternative: along the Quai des Belges (min. 700 m. walk from the Shadok)

I arrive by train...

By foot

It's a 35-minute walk from the station. Here is the best route!

By tram

Click here to find the best ticket (by downloading the CTS app, it's much easier).

Please note that the so-called "carnet de 10" is a ticket for one person to make 10 journeys (cannot be used by several passengers).

CTS also offers 24h SOLO tickets (€4.60), 24h TRIO tickets (€6.90) and a 3-day PASS (€9.30) available on the app or on the tram terminals.

Which tram line to take (15-20 min):

- the easiest way: leave the station and turn left to find tram C (direction Neuhof-Reuss) and get off at Winston Churchill: the Shadok is just behind the big black buildings, along the platform.
- the nicest (you go through the city centre): get to the platforms from the station via the basement: take tram A (direction Illkirch Graffenstaden) or tram D (direction Port du Rhin). In both cases, get off at Etoile-Bourse. When you get there, cross the tram tracks, cross the Place de l'Etoile and walk along the platform to find the Shadok (or follow this route)

By scooters

Here, no free-floating scooters; the bikes have to be brought back to charging stations. Good thing there are charging stations in Place de la Gare and in front of the Shadok! Information and KNOT application here.

Thanks to KNOT for the promo code : FBI2023

By bike

Self-service bicycles (Vel'Hop) are available throughout the city, including Place de la Gare, but you must create an account online first.

WHERE TO STAY?

I want cheap accommodation...

If you want to stay in a youth hostel, here are some places:

- CIARUS: good value for money, out of the way but quick access to the station by bus
- Auberge de jeunesse historique: the cheapest, but very far from the city centre...
- People Hostel: the luxury youth hostel in a renovated tobacco factory
- AMITEL: if you are between 18 and 30 years old and you are a young worker, doctoral student, trainee, apprentice, work-study student...! (45€/night in one of the three residences in Strasbourg that are close to the Shadok)

I want a hotel...

For hotels, the nearest ones:

- Student Factory: in a student residence, some rooms (with an incredible view....!) are available to the public at 70€ for short stays
- Nearby, the Okko Hotel is really nice (4 stars) and if you get there early, the prices are sometimes surprisingly low
- Aloft, in the brand new buildings on the Place de l'Étoile

For hotels that are further away but have other perks:

- Ibis Style or Nemea appart hotel, Avenue du Rhin (1.5km from the Shadok, off-centre)
- Hôtel Diana Dauphine (basic, but efficient)
- Hôtel Beaucour (traditional, near the lively Place d'Austerlitz)
- le Graffalgar with each room decorated by a Strasbourg artist

For rentals:

Interesting districts to look for: Bourse, Krutenau, Centre or (less pretty but convenient) Esplanade Neudorf

CAUTION: NO LUGGAGE STORAGE AT THE SHADOK

We cannot provide luggage storage at the Shadok due to liability reasons.

Before arriving on site, please remember to leave your personal belongings where you are staying. However, if you are in a special situation, please get in touch with us so that we can find a solution!

HUNGRY?

Each Pirate pays his own catering costs during the WEPP, but a collective catering will be available for lunch.

CAUTION: Meals must be purchased prior the event from the Fr Pirate Party shop.

LUNCH TICKETS

Meal tickets are sold at €15 each. These tickets give access to an individual hot dish, Kouglof for dessert and drinks (non-alcoholic). One ticket = one lunch. Please buy them before the event online, we will not be able to sell tickets on site!

THE MEAL

The Pirates are cosmopolitan. So, for the lunches on Saturday and Sunday, we called on an Afghan caterer. A change of scenery guaranteed! The opportunity to taste the narenj palaw or the kabouli! When ordering, you can choose between two meat dishes and two vegetarian dishes.

borosjuli, CC BY 2.0

NIXE, CC BY-SA 4.0

GOURMET BREAKS

Gourmet breaks are planned during the days. In addition, a bar on the ground floor of the SHADOK, "le Dok", will be open all day Saturday. An opportunity to have a beer/bretzel break (in moderation, natürlich)!

The SHADOK is surrounded by restaurants at all prices: Sushi, Thai, American Diner, Tratorria, as well as all the usual shopping centre franchises (the "Centre Commercial Rivétoile" is 200m away).

You should easily find something to eat at any time. However, in Strasbourg, restaurants in the centre rarely serve after 10pm.

PROGRAMME

FRIDAY, APRIL 14

Organized by Alsace Digitale

Alsace Digitale is an association whose ambition is to present and promote the digital revolution in the Alsace region and to build an Alsatian digital ecosystem, with its epicentre in Strasbourg.

The SHADOK opens its doors at 11am!

As you arrive: handing over of the booklet, discovery of the place, advice on how to enjoy Strasbourg, pleasant moment of reunion and meeting with the Pirates.

The afternoon programme...

12pm, "Internet 2030: What will our online future look like? (In French)

Participatory workshop around a digital timeline

2.30PM - 4PM, Creation of podcasts (In French)

Come and be interviewed on the themes of digital responsibility

4.30PM-6PM, Why aren't all software free? (In French)

Debate with : Marc Chantraux (University of Strasbourg), Pauline Barrois-Wendehenne (INPI), Cédric Levieux (Internet architect)

DETAILED PROGRAMME ON THE FACEBOOK PAGE OF ALSACE DIGITALE

7pm: "Swingstub" evening at the Dok

Join the swinging party at the bar of the SHADOK, "Le Dok".

The entrance is free, and you can support the place that welcomes us by drinking at the bar!

SATURDAY, APRIL 15

10:00 – Public reception – coffee

10:30 – Opening of the Weekend

Opening speech by

Caroline Zorn, spokesperson of the French Pirate Party, vice-president of the Eurometropole

Etienne Evellin, international coordinator of the French and European Pirate Party

Mikuláš Peksa, MEP, President of the European Pirate Party

Pirates debate the news.

Controlling identity online: the case of minors in relation to pornographic content (In French)

Summary:

On the Internet, nobody knows you're a dog.

The caption of Steiner's 1993 New Yorker cartoon showing a dog behind a computer has long illustrated online anonymity. Now, 30 years later, identifying oneself online has become commonplace. However, to access certain "adult content", pseudonymity is still widely used... This exception is set to disappear, as such content will in theory be subject to identity checks in order to protect minors. This is the meaning of the proposed "law to establish a digital majority and to fight against online hate". What techniques exist to try to implement this law and under whose responsibility? Is facial analysis an appropriate way to protect young people and what content should they be protected from? Is the collection of the sexual orientation of Internet users a plausible hypothesis?

Informations:

Saturday, April 15

11AM – 1.30PM

Speakers:

Bruno Py, Professor of Private Law and Criminal Sciences, University of Lorraine

Carmina, CEO CARRE ROSE FILMS, independent adult film production company

Marc Rees, journalist specialised in digital communications laws for L'informé

Sequence 1: How do Pirates work together?

Did you say delegative democracy? (In French)

Summary:

Are you familiar with representative and direct democracy? What if democracy could also be delegative or liquid? The Pirate Party offers you a presentation of this third kind of democracy, an assessment of its use within the party and how its use is facilitated by digital tools.

Informations:

Saturday, April 15
2PM - 2.45PM

Speaker:

A spokesperson for the French Pirate Party

Congressus, the online democracy tool of the Pirate Party (In French)

Summary

It's good to claim to be a party that experiments with new forms of democracy, doing it in real life is better. Come and discover the online delegative democracy tool developed by the Pirate Party.

Informations:

Saturday, April 15
3PM - 3Pm45

Speaker:

A spokesperson for the French Pirate Party

The design of activism: from theory to reality? (in French)

Summary:

In this public testimony, Geoffrey Dorne will present the links he draws between design and commitment to social and environmental justice. Through design and digital projects, questions and perspectives for action, he will also propose some a lines of thought and action to take back home.

Informations:

Saturday, April 15
3PM - 3Pm45

Speaker:

Geoffrey Dorne
Designer, author
of *Hacker citizen :
le guide de survie
citoyen en milieu
urbain*

Sequence 2 : Elected pirate, she/her.

Being an elected woman on the Internet (In English)

Summary:

The European Parliament is composed of an average of 36% women, ranging from 16.7% for the representatives of Luxembourg to 61.6% for the representatives of Finland (France is 8th out of 28, with 45.9%).

At the international level, in 2018, the world's parliaments, all chambers combined, were composed of only 23.9% women.

The issue of parity is therefore far from being resolved!

What is life like for a Pirate woman politician? Pirate women politicians from all over Europe and the world share their experience as women politicians and in particular on their use of social networks.

Informations:

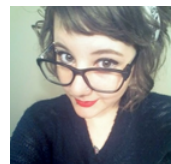

Saturday, April 15
4PM - 5PM

Speakers:

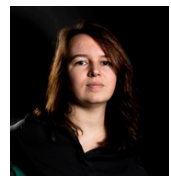

Anne Herpetz
President of the
German Pirate Party

Bailey Lamon
Former president of the Pirate Party
International

Florie Marie
President of the
Pirate Party
International

Sequence 3: The Pirates have a critical mind.

Conference "The art of doubt: a good critical mind begins with doubting yourself". (In French)

Summary:

What can the social sciences teach us about our representations, our points of view and even what we hold to be well-established knowledge?

A short review of the literature, followed by a moment of collective reflection, at a safe distance from any relativism or nihilism and as close as possible to humility and trust, two foundations of the critical mind that are too often forgotten.

Informations :

Saturday, April 15
5.30PM - 6.30 PM

Speakers:

David Engélibert
Scientific mediator
at Cortecs collective

Emmanuel Mayoud
Digital mediator in popular education

SUNDAY, APRIL 16

10:00 – Public reception – coffee

Sequence 4: How do Pirates take over the world?

Statistical review of the 2022 parliamentary elections (In French)

Summary:

The 2022 parliamentary elections were rather successful for the French Pirate Party, allowing us to access public funding and gain visibility. Statistical review on the characteristics of the territories more sensitive to Pirate ideas and on the impacts of the electoral propaganda.

Informations:

Sunday, April 16
10AM – 11AM

Speakers :

The 2022 Elections crew of the French Pirate Party

Life after the polls: Pirates at City Council (In French)

Summary:

From the district to the metropolis, several Pirates are posted in councils in France, notably in Besançon, Marseille and Strasbourg. A look back at their interventions since the last elections and their way of reconciling their mandate and their Pirate commitment within broader coalitions.

Informations:

Sunday , April 16
11.30AM – 1PM

Speakers:

Caroline Zorn, Strasbourg
Christophe Hugon, Marseille
Emillia Sinsoilliez, Marseille
François Bousso, Besançon

Sequence 5: Do the Pirates discuss everything?

The French crews introduce themselves (In French)

Summary:

What are the subjects that our crews are working on?
How do they debate? Come and discover our works regarding Agriculture, diversity, geopolitics, sport, health, housing, economy, higher education and maybe even more...

Informations:

Sunday, April 16
2.30PM – 3.15PM

Speakers:

Members of the French
Pirate Party

National public debate: can we debate elsewhere than online? (In French)

Summary:

Public debate is a procedure provided for by the law of February 27th 2002 on local democracy. Led by the National Commission for Public Debate (CNDP), the Public Debate must enable citizens to participate in the development of projects that have an impact on the environment. However, the example of the contribution to the "Energy-climate programming law" worries about the possibility of holding debates away from the keyboard.
Would online consultations become the only means of discussing these crucial subjects?

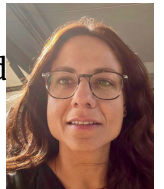

Informations:

Sunday, April 16
3.30PM – 4.30PM

Speakers:

Hervé Polesi
Sociology professor and Deputy-Mayor.

Myrto Tripathi
Tristan Kamin
Les Voix du Nucléaire
Association members.

17h00 – Clôture du Week-end

Closing speech by a spokesperson for the French Pirate Party

Monday, April 17 at 2PM
Visit to the European Parliament

AND MORE!

French Pirate Party Workshops

We offer upon registration:

Apprentice sailor training: discover the Pirate Party

Come and discover how the Pirate Party works thanks to the training offered to members

Buccaneer training: learn the basics of Pirate tools!

Come and find out more about how the tools of the Pirate Party work thanks to the advanced training offered to members.

Workshop: let's calculate together the environmental impact of WEPP

This is not a way to question the choices that have been made for the organization of this event, but to provide an objective view on our impact and to think how to improve the next events.

European Pirate Party

At the Algo space, on the SHADOK floor, various meetings and reflections of the European Pirate Party will take place during this weekend.

Saturday, April 15 - Common European Election Program

Discover and take part in the development of the European Pirate Party program with Pirates from all over Europe and learn about the major issues of the next European elections.

Sunday, April 16 - Council Meeting

The European Pirate Party invites you to attend and take part in its General Assembly. Explanation times will be offered at the end of each sequence.

DISABLED ACCESS STANDARDS

Regarding the access of the event, we are letting you know that SHADOK is reachable to people with disabilities. However, it is better to notify the team if you have any special needs to make your access to the place seamless.

Moreover, not all disabilities are visible. Also, do not hesitate to get in touch with our team (contact@partipirate.org) so that we take your situation into account.

TO REACH SHADOK

If you arrive by train and you use a wheelchair. Please take tram C towards Neuhof and get off at the Churchill stop. Go between the buildings called "Black Swann" and head towards the Shadok which will be on your right (staying on the same level: do not take the ramp down).

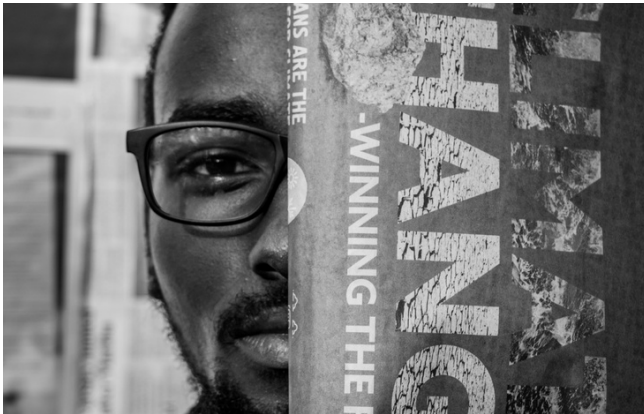

NIXE, CC BY-SA 4.0

EQUALITY

Pirates act against any sexist, homophobic, transphobic, racist, anti-Semitic behavior and more generally any disrespectful behavior towards other pirates, as towards any person. It is therefore important to remember the rules to which we agree for this WEPP including the Pirate code.

LET'S RESPECT EACH OTHER

Mutual respect is unconditional, regardless of social origin, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, physical appearance or clothing... If you wish to address these topics, simply ask if the person would like to engage in this type of discussion with you and strictly respect their response.

LET'S TALK PROPERLY

If something is said to you and makes you uncomfortable, say so. Not only does it make us progress collectively to say things, but it is also not up to you to accept the inappropriate behavior of others.

Talking about speaking: let's listen to each other and let each other speak fairly!
Neither manspreading nor mansplaining.

Mansplaining, RobertGHofman, CC-BY-SA-4.0

Photo de Mika Baumeister sur Unsplash

FIGHT AGAINST THE GBSV

Gender-based and sexual violence is a scourge. It can happen anywhere, so best not to shove this issue under the rug. If you are victims or witnesses of facts that you think constitute violence, we invite you to report it to the "VSS referent" who will be on site.

- In case of emergency call the police on 17
- If you can't talk, text 114

PROTECTION OF YOUR DATA

All of the sequences will be broadcasted online via the tools of the Pirate Party.

There will also certainly be photos taken.

If you do not want to appear, the easiest way is to button in a visible way the badge:

"DON'T PHOTOGRAPH ME PLEASE".

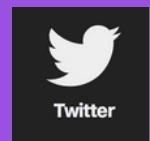

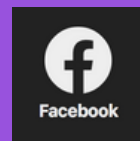

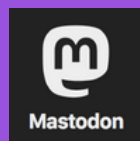

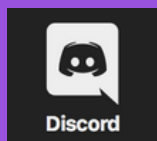

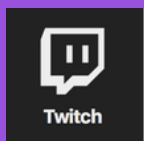

For any questions about the protection of your personal data: contact@partipirate.org

John Cummings - CC-BY-SA-3.0

STREAMING?

If unfortunately you cannot be with us for this great weekend, the round tables and conferences will be filmed and broadcast live. To follow us live, go to the Pirate Party Twitch channel.

Support us,
donate :

21 place de la République - 75003 Paris
<https://partipirate.org/> contact@partipirate.org